

Have a Talent or Skill You want to teach?

Looking for Instructors

Monument Crisis Center is looking for enthusiastic instructors to lead workshops and classes for the families at Monument Crisis Center!

From arts & crafts to health and fitness, your skills and talents can help support individuals and families in need in your community.

Monument Crisis Center is a family resource center and all services are free to families in need.

Want to volunteer?

If you are interested in volunteering, please contact our East County Resource Coordinator, Chris Venenciano at eastcounty@monumentcrisiscenter.org to learn about how you can host a class or workshop for families near you!

MCC is looking to create classes for our families to attend during our weekly food distribution Monday - Wednesday between the hours of 9AM to 12PM with flexibility based on your availability.

We look forward to hearing from you!
